

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's current law has been extremely effective. I used to received approximately 10 unsolicited calls per week, and now there are many weeks when I do not receive any calls. I feel that is would be a great injustice to Indiana residents if the FCC preempts state Telephone Privacy laws in favor of one lower National standard.